Dear TRACEY,

See you soon.

Learn Stranded Colorwork - Nordic Headband and Hat

Sunday, November 22 2-5 p.m.

Make this lovely, stranded colorwork hat and coordinating Nordic headband. Stranded colorwork, often called fair isle, isn't hard. Learn to read a chart and make this quick hat. A great holiday gift, you won't believe how easy it is to make. One skein of each color of Cascade 220 or 220 Superwash will make both the hat and the headband.

Skills necessary: Must be able to knit in the round on circular and double pointed needles. Must be able to increase and decrease, cast on and bind off.

Supplies: Size 7 or 8 16" circular needle and corresponding double points. Markers. Two skeins of Cascade 220 in contrasting colors. Standard knitting tackle.

Included in class: Instruction and pattern. Homework: Pick up pattern and follow directions to cast on and complete ribbing prior to start of class. Come to class ready to join second color.

Class size is limited to 6 people.
 Class Fee: $60.

Get 16% Off!

I lost my father to Leukeumia almost two years ago. Before he became ill, he gave blood regularly. So do I. I'd like to encourage you to do so, as well. Waldron Mercy Academy is having a Blood Drive on Saturday, November 14, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. Sign up to give blood and donate and I'll give you 16% off a purchase that day. My appointment is at 8:15.

You can either call Margie Winters at Waldron to schedule at 610-664-9847 or click on Waldron Mercy Blood Drive Registration to register.

UFO Wednesdays

Wednesday afternoons, the doctor is in. Join Diana and Helen between 2 and 5 for an open workshop to deal with your thorny problems. Got a sweater your put down two years ago and have no idea how many decreases are left? We can tell you. Can't remember what you were supposed to do with the sleeves? We can help. No reservation necessary. $15.

Open workshop. Bring your project which needs fixing or finishing. $10. No pre-registration necessary.
